

MAJOR SAMUEL GRIFFIN IS ELECTED COMMANDER

Hedford City Man Receives Highest Honor Within Gift of Virginia's Confederate Veterans.

OTHER OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN
Grand Camp, Now Meeting in Newport News, Makes Rapid Progress in Business Sessions—Many Social Affairs Planned for Visitors.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., October 21.—A long business session, at which officers were elected, two receptions for the veterans, Sons of Veterans and the sponsors and maids, and a trip through the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company occupied the time of the delegates during the second day of the Confederate reunion here to-day. Major Samuel Griffin, of Bedford City, a veteran of Mumfords Cavalry, was elected commander of the Grand Camp, succeeding General J. Thompson Brown, of Richmond.

Major Griffin's name was placed in nomination by Captain Lamb, of Richmond, who paid a beautiful and eloquent tribute to his comrade. In accepting the nomination, Major Griffin declared that he felt the office was the highest honor that could be bestowed upon him. Colonel Thomas S. Tate, of Drapers, was elected first lieutenant; grand commander, Colonel Thomas G. Egan, of Roanoke, second lieutenant; grand commander, Major George W. Neime, of this city, third lieutenant; grand commander. Other officers elected were: Tipton D. M. Jennings, of Lynchburg, inspector-general; Colonel David A. Brown, of Richmond, adjutant-general; Rev. James C. Reed, D. D., of Hampton, first grand chaplain; Bishop George W. Peterkin, of Parkersburg, W. Va., second grand chaplain; and Dr. John T. Torrell, of Lynchburg, surgeon-general.

WANT GENERAL LEE'S PAPERS PLACED IN BATTLE ABNEY

The meeting of the grand camp, which was held in the Academy of Music, was marked by the rapid progress made. Committee reports were received and acted upon with dispatch, and thorough harmony reigned. Among the resolutions offered was one for the placing of the personal papers of General Robert E. Lee, obtained several years ago by one of the members of the camp, in the Battle Abbey in Richmond.

The committee on history submitted a strong plea for action that would result in spreading true knowledge of the causes of the War Between the States. Judge C. H. Christian, of Richmond, chairman of the committee, said that it is a duty the veterans owe the South and the younger generation for the cause of the Confederacy fought for right.

VISITORS TAKEN OVER SHIPBUILDING PLANT

This afternoon the veterans and their friends were taken over the plant of the local shipbuilding. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon a reception by the grand commander to the veterans, Sons of Veterans, Virginia Division, United Confederate Veterans, sponsors, maids of honor and citizens was held at the Hotel Warwick.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY SONS OF VETERANS

The election of officers and the inauguration of movements to raise funds for needy Confederate women and to mark the historic spots and battlefields of Virginia were features of the closing session of the annual meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Department of Virginia, which met here in conjunction with the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, this afternoon.

E. W. Speed, of Roanoke, was elected commander, and the following were named as brigade officers: First Brigade, E. S. Hendon, Port Antonio; second Brigade, Dr. W. J. Gills, Farmville; Third Brigade, S. L. Adams, South Boston; Fourth Brigade, Rudolph Baumgardner, Staunton; Fifth Brigade, W. Allen, Woodstock.

NORTH CAROLINA DIVISION WILL APPEAL FOR PENSIONS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Raleigh, N. C., October 21.—The North Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans, to-night re-elected Major W. A. Graham president, and J. C. Birdsong, secretary, and voted to appoint a committee, consisting of Judge Walter Clark, Captain M. C. Sherrill, W. S. Lineberry, Major W. A. Graham and J. C. Birdsong, to petition the Legislature to pension old soldiers.

Tunnel to cost $54,000.
Colonel C. E. McGwyn yesterday submitted to the Administrative Board plans for opening Fifteenth Street by tunneling under Broad Street. The cost will be approximately $54,000. Action by the board was deferred until November 6, when City Engineer Beving will have prepared specifications for the proposed improvement.

Building Permits.
Permits were issued yesterday by Building Inspector Butler as follows: Mrs. Sue S. Dawson, to build a detached two-story frame dwelling at 418 South Pine Street, to cost $2,000; J. Corby, to repair brick dwelling at 113 North Lombard Street, to cost $100.

YOUNG WOMAN'S TRIAL FIXED FOR OCTOBER 24

Case Against Maude Johnson, Charged With Child Abandonment, Postponed in Police Court.

The case against Maude Johnson, the young woman arrested Tuesday by Detective-Sergeant John Wiley on a warrant charging her with abandoning her infant child, was yesterday continued until October 24 by Justice Griggs. The continuance was granted because several important witnesses failed to appear in court when the case was called.

The young woman's father arrived in the city yesterday from Charlottesville and saw his daughter at the First Police Station, where she is being held under the care of a police matron. It is said that she may take home after the court hearing of the case. Mrs. Georgia May Johnson, president of the Richmond branch of the Pro-natal League of America and a recognized social worker, appeared in court yesterday in the girl's behalf.

NO RECORD IS FOUND OF SAILOR'S ARREST

Local Police Investigate Alleged Imprisonment of Stanley Lee Johnson.

Chief of Police Werner yesterday received a letter from the captain in command of the steaming ship Franklin, at Norfolk, relative to the alleged arrest in Richmond of Stanley Lee Johnson, which is said to have occurred on September 2. The captain's statement to the naval commander is as follows:

"I left this station September 2, 1914, on a furlough to expire at midnight September 17. On September 2 I was arrested in Richmond for trespassing on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. I was sentenced in Police Court to twenty days in jail for this offense. On September 29 I was released from jail, and on that date surrendered to G. C. Garnett, deputy sheriff of Henrico County, at Richmond, and was delivered on board this vessel by him at about 12:15 P. M. October 17 in civilian clothes.

"On September 12 I informed the jailer that I was in the naval service, and asked how I could communicate with my commanding officer. He said I should write. I then asked for writing material and stamps to do this, but was not given them until September 26. On that date I wrote him home. It was my intention to return to this ship as soon as possible after being released from jail.

Information gathered from the police was to the effect that there were no records to show that a man giving this name had been arrested here, or that he had served a term in the City Jail.

The captain of the ship, however, disclosed any such name, according to the police. Chief Werner said he would turn the correspondence over to the county authorities.

CREAMERY INCORPORATED

South Richmond Company Launches Co-Operative Enterprise.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted a charter to the Creamery, Inc., of South Richmond, Chesterfield County. The concern is authorized to manufacture, distribute and sell cream, butter and other dairy products. The capital stock is $1,000, divided into 10,000 shares of $100 each. The officers of the company are: L. S. Thacker, president; J. H. Thacker, secretary; and Oscar Swineford, treasurer.

Other charters were granted as follows: Morgan Bros., Inc., Rosslyn. Maximum capital, $50,000; minimum, $10,000. T. J. Morgan, president; Marie P. Eren, secretary, both of Washington, D. C. Purpose: Real estate business.

Lyon Blood Purifier Company, Inc., Roanoke. Maximum, $75,000; minimum, $10,000. G. W. Cook, president; Finley H. G. Lacy, secretary and treasurer, Roanoke. Purpose: To manufacture blood purifiers.

An amendment to the charter of the Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company changes the principal office from Alexandria to Colonial Beach, and increases the capital stock from $155,000 to $200,000.

Foreign amendment: Keystone National Powder Company, a Pennsylvania corporation, increased its capital stock from $100,000 to $250,000.

POLICE COURT CASES CONTINUED

The case against Howard Davis, colored, arrested by Detectives Kellam and Connell, charged with breaking into Connel's and Miller's place at 23 North Third Street and stealing $15 worth of cigars, was yesterday continued until October 23 by Justice Griggs.

The case against Frank Dickman, charged with assaulting and kidnapping William Nottage, was continued until October 24. The man was arrested by Police Sergeant Zimmerman.

The case against Thomas Richardson, colored, charged with shooting Alfred Thomas with a pistol, was yesterday continued until October 31. The man was arrested by patrolman Smallwood.

The case against Melvin Walker, colored, charged with holding up J. T. Connel, was continued until October 24. The man was arrested by Detectives Wilshire and Bailey.

The case against Mary Carter, alias Mary St. John, alias Mary Williams, colored, who was arrested some time ago by Detectives Wiley, Kellam and Bryn, charged with forging the name of Mrs. J. Scott Parrish to a number of orders on local stores for merchandise, was again continued. The continuance to November 24 was granted on account of Mrs. Parrish's absence from the city.

The case against Edward Mayo, colored, suspected of being the man who switched a pocketbook from Mrs. Joseph Vesper, 507 East Leigh Street Saturday night, was continued until October 27.

been placed in the box by delegates followed. "Yeast Foods and Sweetening Agents in Bread Dough" was the subject of an address delivered at the morning session by Professor George L. Teller, a well-known chemist. Professor Teller has devoted much of his time in studying conditions in bakeries throughout the country, and when he finished his address he replied to many questions asked by delegates.

M. A. Gray, a well-known milling expert, spoke on "Milling and What It Applies to Bakers." He explained to the delegates just what results may be expected from the use of certain brands of flour, and pointed out the importance of making a selection of materials.

URGENT ORGANIZATION AS PROTECTIVE MEASURE

John E. McKinley, head of one of the largest baking concerns in the country, was the next speaker. "Value of the National Association of Master Bakers to the Individual Baker" was his topic. Mr. McKinley stressed the importance of organization, and urged that members of the national association seek to bring all bakers of the country into the organization as a protective measure.

Speakers at the afternoon session of the convention, which convened at 1 o'clock, were Frank Stockdale, of Chicago, Ill., and L. J. Kolb, of Philadelphia, a former president of the association. "Keeping Up With the Rising Costs" was the topic of Mr. Stockdale, while Mr. Kolb spoke on "Causes Which Have Contributed to the Elevation of the Baking Business." Both speakers were frequently applauded.

PENNSYLVANIA MAN WANTS BAKERS' HOME

A. W. Kley, of Phoenixville, Pa., is one of the most enthusiastic delegates attending the national gathering. At the Philadelphia convention of the Pennsylvania State Association of Bakers, June, 1914, a special committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions and devise ways and means for the erection and maintenance of a home for bakers and members of their families who retire when overtaken by the infirmities of old age or by misfortune.

In Great Britain and in Germany the bakers have long maintained such homes, and Mr. Kley, supported by a large number of master bakers here attending the convention, is urging that the United States follow the example of the foreign countries in this respect. The plan advocated by the Pennsylvania baker is believed to be entirely practical, and if the national association has allowed suggestions for the proposed home to be taken at the convention, and already more than $5,000 has been subscribed.

CONVENTION NEWSPAPER ATTRACTS ATTENTION

The convention daily, which is being issued from association headquarters by members of the staff of the Bakers' Weekly, of New York City, is attracting favorable comment. The daily, which is prepared by Frank S. Bamford, A. L. Bamford, Albert Klopfer and H. A. Cotter, contains a complete registration of delegates and visitors to the convention, besides other features.

To-day's entertainment program promises to surpass any previous efforts of the local committee to entertain the visitors. The boat trip down the historic James River on the steamer Pocahontas to Dutch Gap and back is the highlight of the day's card of amusements, but numerous other features have been arranged. Cars will leave the Main Street entrance of the Jefferson Hotel for the Old Dominion Wharf at 7 o'clock this evening, and the boat will leave the pier for the outing at 8 o'clock sharp.

TOUR OF INDUSTRIES
This morning at 10 o'clock members of the local committee will conduct parties of visitors on inspection tours of local manufacturing plants. After visiting several of the local factories the visitors will be served a luncheon at 1 o'clock at the plant of C. F. Sauer Company, on West Broad Street.

Business sessions of the convention to-day promise to be of great interest. Besides several addresses of more than usual moment, business of importance to the association will be transacted. The convention will adjourn to-morrow afternoon, immediately after new officers are installed.

SOUTHEASTERN BAKERS FOUND NEW ASSOCIATION

Organization to Embrace Bakers of States Southeast of, and Including, North Carolina.

Bakers here from the Southeastern States attending the seventeenth annual convention of the National Association of Master Bakers met yesterday afternoon at the Jefferson Hotel and organized the Southeastern Master Bakers' Association. The following officers for the newly formed organization were elected and installed: president, G. Gifford, Spartanburg, S. C.; vice-president, Fred Reynolds, Tampa, Fla.; secretary-treasurer, Clarence E. Sears, Macon, Ga.; executive committee—Gordon Smith, Mobile, Ala.; P. H. Nugent, Savannah, Ga.; William Conder, Charleston, S. C., and M. Fisch, Birmingham, Ala.

A meeting of the officers and entire membership of the Southeastern Master Bakers' Association has been called for this morning at 9:30 o'clock, in parlor No. 2, Jefferson Hotel, for the purpose of discussing the future work and plans of the newly formed organization.

In practically all of the Northeastern States bakers are organized in State associations, and the newly formed organization has for its territory all the States southeast of, and including, North Carolina.

Practically all of the delegates here attending the convention of the national association from the Southeastern section joined yesterday in the formation of the new association for their section of the country, although the exact number of those who have allied themselves with the infant organization was not available last night. At the meeting this morning, it is expected, a constitution and by-laws for the new association will be formulated, and its aims and purposes made clear.

It was stated last night that an unsuccessful effort was recently made to induce the States of North Carolina and West Virginia to join with this State in a tri-State organization. Virginia bakers now belong to a flourishing State organization with a large membership.

Charged With Beating Child.

Mrs. W. H. Croach was last night arrested by Bicycle Policeman Tiller on a warrant charging her with assaulting Annie May Cross, a small girl. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. E. E. Cross, mother of the girl, who alleged that Mrs. Croach had struck the child while she was at play on the street. The case will be heard in Police Court this morning.

FIVE JUDGES APPLY FOR SALARY INCREASE

Members of Richmond Bench Ask Finance Committee to Raise Their Pay $500 a Year.

THEY JOIN IN PETITION

Point to Increased Cost of Living and Enlarged Territorial Jurisdiction When Annexation Goes Into Effect—Not Receive But $4,500.

Five judges of Richmond courts have filed a petition with the Council Finance Committee asking that their salaries be increased by $500 annually. The members of the bench are Judge D. C. Richardson, of the Hustings Court; Judge Ernest H. Wells, of the Hustings Court, Part II; Judge William A. Monroe, of the Chancery Court; Judge Beverly T. Crump, of the Law and Equity Court, and Judge R. Carter Scott, of the City Chancery Court.

In their joint letter sent to the Finance Committee, the five judges set forth that the increase they ask is made almost necessary on account of the high cost of living; and they point to the fact that their territorial jurisdiction will be greatly enlarged when annexation goes into effect on November 5, for which there has been no corresponding salary increase. It is responding to the petition that the city's administrative officers receive salaries of $5,000, while the judges receive but $4,500.

The salaries of judges of the Richmond courts are paid from both the State and city treasuries. The Commonwealth allows each jurist $3,000 annually, and each receives $1,500 from the city treasury.

The petitioners state that they do not desire an immediate increase, and add that such an act is constitutionally prohibited. Their idea is to have the increase given them at the beginning of the new terms of office in each court.

The terms of the signers of the petition expire as follows: Judge Crump, February 1, 1915; Judge Wells, February 1, 1915; Judge Monroe, February 1, 1915; Judge Scott, February 1, 1915, and Judge Richardson, February 1, 1915. The Finance Committee will meet on Monday night.

HAD THIRTEEN PAWN TICKETS

Detectives Believe Peter Townes Is Wholesale Clothing Thief.

In the arrest yesterday of Peter Townes, colored, Detectives Smith and Butler and Duffy believe they have succeeded in capturing the thief who recently robbed the cleaning and pressing establishment of Joseph C. Sunderland, 23 North Seventeenth Street, and stole a number of suits of clothes.

The detectives claim the opinion that the man, who was employed by Sunderland, has been pawning clothing brought there for cleaning and pressing during the last few weeks. They found thirteen pawn tickets on him, all for clothing, and will locate the pawnshops from the various shops and attempt to have them identified.

Townes was technically charged with the theft of a pair of trousers from Harry Marks, a post-office clerk, in order that he might be able to identify the officers are investigating the other cases. He will be arraigned before Justice Griggs in the Police Court this morning.

"Firemen's Friend" Visits Governor.

Major Charles T. Bland, Commonwealth's Attorney of the city of Portsmouth, visited Governor Stuart yesterday. Major Bland is in the city on law business, while the Governor took a meeting of old friends and acquaintances. He served several terms as a member of the House of Representatives, and was the patron of several measures for the relief of aged and infirm firemen and their families. He was a member of the firemen's association in the city, and his activities in behalf of the firemen have not been in the least diminished since he retired from the legislature.

POLICE GIVE CLEAN BILL TO "MISCHIEF MAKERS"

Chief Witnesses Performance Second Time, and Declares Expurgated Edition Satisfactory.

Chief of Police Werner, Captain Sowall of the First Precinct, and some half-dozen detectives and other officers last night attended the performance of "The Mischief Makers" at the Bijou Theatre. They witnessed a very different type of performance from that given during the first two days of the week's engagement, and one in which it is said, the most discerning of theatre-goers could find nothing to condemn. No further action was taken by the police against the manager of the theatre, and "The Mischief Makers," shorn of the mischief-making properties which called forth such a storm of protest following the Monday night performance, will be allowed to complete their engagement in Richmond.

The police were of the opinion that Manager Briggs had carried out the promise made in Police Court to curtail the objectionable features of the show, and that it is now of a standard to pass the Richmond board of censors. Major Werner was determined to carry through to a finish the step which he had taken with regard to the performance, and held a conference with Captain Sowall early in the afternoon of the 21st. The chief of police has received the hearty support of many of the best known people in the city in his efforts toward strictly enforcing the laws regarding "proper" entertainments.
